Dear Mrs. Manley:

Your letter of the 5th is just receicing my attention. I was uncertain as to where I might reach Colonel Gilbert, but now that he is here I have sent a letter to him concerning your proposition a copy of which is enclosed. You may now communicate with him at Fort Dix.

I looked for you to come through Trenton, but I suppose you did not have time to stop. Trenton will be very glad to see you in person.

Yours faithfully,

Leroy Morris
